THE PROGRAMME

With such an abundance of beautiful villages and undulating scenery on our doorstep, it will come as no surprise that the course looks, in particular, at the art of expressive landscape painting (in the broadest sense) but encourages other subjects to be treated and incorporated into the landscape. You'll get to paint and draw in a variety of places; from the medieval grandeur of the main hall of the Chateau de Saussignac to the rolling vineyards of our favourite local wine makers.

Our teaching methods allow you to discover your own talent – and there are bags of it in everyone - and, above all, to enjoy the process of painting and creating. We encourage a relaxed and fun environment without judgement or comparison.

Whilst some theory relevant to expressive painting will be covered at the beginning of the course, most theory and technical guidance will be incorporated into a continuous painting exercise that students will follow, ensuring that participants have as much practical painting and drawing time as possible.

Introduction to the Course & A Quick Guide to Expressive Painting and how we got here. A look at some examples of expressive painting over the centuries that will inspire the creative juices to flow.

10h45

Opening Up – starting work on a drawing or painting is arguably as difficult, if not more so than knowing when to finish. Our first session will help you free up your hands and minds and quickly feel comfortable with letting go.

Collaborative Workshop on Expressiveness - Thinking Big & Letting Go; we're getting straight into the dirty business of painting, working as a team to create our first masterpiece of the week. This is a chance to throw away any inhibitions and get comfortable with paint, paper and the environment you're in.

- 12h30 Lunch accompanied by a featured local wine presentation
- 14h30 Building the Ideas Bank – We'll wander into the village and the vineyards with some tools to start sketching and planning. This session serves as an inspiration gathering exercise for your Individual Project – through photos, sketches & notes
- Kicking Off the Individual Project – over the course of the week you will create a lot of work. However, you will focus on one or two project pieces that you will step in and out of until 'completion' on the final day, applying what you learn and discover - layering paint, stepping back, embracing complete change and understanding the meaning of 'Finished'
- 16h30 Class Ends
- 19h00 Separate Dinner Options Available

26 July. Glorious Chateau de Fayolle

- 10h00 Chateau de Fayolle Field Trip – Landscape Painting in the open – Embracing the weather to enhance expression. Using mixed media to create a variety of expressive paintings, this session will give students the freedom to express themselves without fear of spillage or studio confines. This is your chance to throw, spread, tear, spill and generally let loose!
- 12h30 Picnic Lunch & Wine Tasting
- 14h00 Individual Project Work whereby you'll each have the time to spend working on your chosen landscape or starting a new one.
- Interspersed during the session we'll take a look at some theory and provide technical support on:
- Making the Most of Colour – Technical & Practical Session
Making Good Form – Bringing Dynamism to your Structure
Creating Texture – Differentiating zones to create interest
- 16h00 Class Ends
- 18h30 Wine Tasting, Place de l'Eglise, Saussignac
- 19h30 Separate Dinner Options Available, including Tapas Night at Le Café 1500

21h00 Movie Night with Popcorn & Prosecco (included when booked in advance)

27 July. Market Day, French Cooking or Relax Alone

08h00 Breakfast

09h00 Depart for St Emilion – you'll have time to wander through this world famous medieval wine town and visit the small market, drawing on inspiration for later work. We'll have lunch at a local restaurant before heading back to Le 1500 to relax for the rest of the day or, for the more adventurous, to lend a hand in the kitchen.

12h30 Lunch, St Emilion

15h00 Cooking Class with our regular chef who will take you through the basics of a French classic. If you're staying for dinner that evening you get to sample the fruits of your efforts accompanied by some more great local wines.

19h30 Separate Dinner Options Available

28 July. Studio Day

08h00 Breakfast

08h30 Optional Morning Donkey Walk

10h00 We'll set aside the vast majority of the morning to continue painting the pieces you will have started from the previous two days. This will give you the time to quietly progress with your work and benefit from individual tutoring and advice.

New Tools Please – painting with a traditional brush or even a palette knife are well known painting techniques. There are, however, no rules when it comes to how you apply paint on to the paper. This exercise will push the boundaries of your ability to express yourself differently by introducing a number of new tools for you to try.

12h30 Lunch

14h30 Dramatic Skies – in landscape painting the sky is often used as the dramatic backdrop to the elements you want to include on the land.

This session will give you the opportunity to discover a new individual technique to painting dramatic skies.

Individual Project Continuation and Studio Practice - space to continue work on the Individual Project with on-hand tuition and guidance.

- 16h00 Class Ends
